Signature of Richard Allwright

† The parish St Mary, Lambeth, Surrey stands right next to Lambeth Place and across the River Thames is Westminster. A few miles up the road is Westminster Bridge, built 1750, which crosses the River Thames. According to church history it was the only church in the area until four sister churches were built in the surrounding areas from 1820 onward. Lambeth was an area famous for glassmaking, pottery and boat building. Richard Walker was the fourth child and only son of Thomas Allwright and Martha Hobson. It is generally claimed in the Allwright Family that the original immigrant, Richard Allwright arrived in Cape Town in the S S Nautilus in 1817. This is not true as the Nautilus first left Gravesend on 3rd Dec 1819 and the earliest mention of him in Official Records in South Africa is a letter, dated 9 Jan 1815, stating that he is fifteen years of age and asking for permission to do an apprenticeship with a Mr. Townsend as Gold and Silversmith in Cape Town. This letter also states that he was born in Westminster, London and his current address at the time was Plein Street No 16, Cape Town (Cape Town Archives CO 3901, no 48). How he came to South Africa is not known.

The next document states that he arrived in 1814 asking permission to stay in the Cape Colony as he has completed his apprenticeship with Mr. Townsend. This letter was signed by a 'W Allwright' though and dated 17 September 1822. We gather that he did receive his Colonial Passport which was granted by His Excellency Lord Charles Somerset. (Cape Town Archives CO 3923, NO 301) On the 30 September 1822 Richard wrote another letter to Lord Charles Henry Somerset asking permission to marry Mary May Broocke (spelling in document- could be correct or incorrect. We established that it is Brookes as their daughter, Martha was christened Angelina Brooks Eva). (Cape Town Archives CO 3923, no 355)

The next document shows that on 11 November 1822, he married Mary May Brooks, who arrived in Cape Town from England. The marriage was performed by the Rev. George Hough, the Colonial Chaplain in Cape Town (A 1939, 1/1/1/2) and witnessed by John and Sarah Windell. They even named their son, Richard Allwright Windell b 1816 and died 11 April 1842.

Richard was born about 1798 in Westminster, London. Richard was a small man +/- 5 feet 4 inches tall, of fair complexion with brown hair and light blue eyes. Strangely no description could be found of Mary May Brooks. She was said to be a Medical Doctor's daughter.

Richard was a Silversmith and Jeweller by trade as we know, but found this unprofitable in the Cape Town of those days with a total population of 15 000 people. He therefore turned to masonry and building to make a living.

Richard and Mary continued living in Cape Town until at least December 1837, when a son, James, was baptized. Sometime after that date, he and his family, except the eldest son, Thomas, gravitated towards Somerset East where they apparently settled down to building and farming.

On the way to Somerset East Richard and his family apparently spent some time at George where he became acquainted with the writer, C. J. Langenhoven. This acquaintance appears to have inspired C. J. Langenhoven to write an amusing one-act play entitled "Die Kys about the Forro." It is included in C. J. Langenhoven's "Oms We Deut Die Eire" and is written in phonetically -spelt Afrikaans- English. In English the title would have been "The Case about the Furrow". It concerns a complaint brought before a Meeting of a Town Council about "Aalryt" diverting water from the river by a furrow situated at a point in the river above that from which the Town Council's canal supplying the town with water, was drawn.

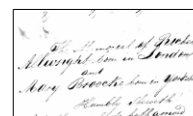

Richard died in the house of his son-in- law, William Denham Eva, at Whittlesea on the 20 December 1847 at the age of 49. (Cape Town Archives MOOC 6/9/48, no 325). His wife had died from a stroke in their home in Somerset East in about 1842. His body is said to have been buried with hers in the same grave. Her Death Notice has not been found.

From the Internet ~ Somerset East: The first settler in this area was a man called Willem Prinsloo. He settled under the Bosberg, very close to where the Museum is today. Prinsloo was the unofficial veld cornet of the district where at least 20 other families had settled in 1774. They send a famous petition to Cape Town asking for the establishment of a Drostdy and a church in the area. This is however Graaff-Reinett was established. At some stage Prinsloo gave up parts of his farm and a farmer called Otto moved into the corner now known as Bestershoek. The Trichardt family followed, as well as the Besters. Lord Charles Somerset, taking up the the ideas promulgated by Cradock and Caledon that there should be a settlement on the Eastern Frontier, initiated a plan for an experimental farm in the area. American botanist, Dr. Mackrill, was given orders to find a suitable farm, and was told to look at three places, the Gamtoos Valley, the Swartkops Valley and Bosberg, which he naturally chose. The farm was established in 1815, for the purpose of improving stockbreeding in the Cape Colony and providing produce for the soldiers at the Frontier. It was called "Somerset Farm". Ten years later, in

Richard Walker Allwright

1825, the project was cancelled, a new Drostdy was declared, and the town of Somerset was established. The "East" was only added on 30 years later.

Richard married Mary May BROOCKE<sup>9</sup> on 11 November 1822 in English Church later St. George's Cathedral Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.<sup>9,10</sup> Mary was born in 1800 in Yorkshire and died in 1842 in Somerset East, Eastern Cape, South Africa aged 42. They had eight children: Thomas John, George Moses, Charles, Richard, Martha, James, William and Charles.

Document with Mary Broocke's name

~ Mary had been born in Yorkshire in 1800 and had been betrothed to Richard in England before he immigrated. She had been accompanied on the voyage in 1822 by a Chaperone who returned to England shortly after the marriage. According to the letters written by Richard Allwright she could have arrived between 17 and 30 September 1822

Richard and Mary had seven sons and one daughter, all born in Cape Town. The third son, Charles, only lived for four months and was not baptized. The other seven children were all baptized in St. George's Cathedral, Cape Town. They were as follows.<sup>5,6,7</sup>

a1b1-Thomas John ALLWRIGHT<sup>5,9</sup> was born on 16 November 1823 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 11 January 1824 in St George's Cathedral, Cape Town, Cape Colony,<sup>5,9</sup> and died on 7 June 1865 in the House of Mr. Holmes in Cape Town, South Africa<sup>11</sup> aged 41.

~ Thomas John Allwright was a Miller and worked for a Mr. Zeederberg in Cape Town. In 1855 he was resident at Caledon Street, Cape Town. Thomas died in the home of a Mr. Holmes, Harrington Street in Cape Town on the 7 June 1865 at the age of 45 years. His age on his Death Notice is given as Fifty Two which is incorrect, his age was 41. His Death Notice was signed by Mr. Holmes. Thomas died after his father who died in 1847, but is not listed on his father's Death Notice. Thomas left the whole of his household to his 8 year 8 month old son, Thomas John, in a document dated June 1865, (he died 7 June 1865) where he states the contents of his household was Clothes, 6 cane chairs, yellowwood dining table, drafting table, American clock. (DWA)<sup>12</sup>

Thomas married Paulina Maria WILLEMSE, daughter of George WILLEMSE and NN, on 5 October 1846 in St George's Church, Cape Town by Rev R.G. Lamb AB.<sup>13</sup> Paulina was born in 1820 and died on 28 July 1861 in her husband's Limehouse, 11 Primrose Street, Cape Town, South Africa<sup>14</sup> aged 41. They had four children: Maria Hestrina, Richard, Matthew James and Thomas John.

~ Paulina died at the age of 41 years. Her father is stated as George Willemse but no mention is made of her mother only that both parents are living. There is only one child listed on her Death Notice, Thomas, who would have been about two years old at the time of his mother's death. It is interesting to note that she died using her maiden name as on the Death Notice it states "married to undergo" probably meaning that they were getting divorced and she was also buried by the Burial Society with an advance from Mr. Zeederberg and Thomas had to pay of the difference outstanding. (DWA)<sup>14</sup>

a1b2-George Moses ALLWRIGHT<sup>5,9</sup> was born on 9 July 1825 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 23 October 1825 in St Georges Cathedral in Cape Town,<sup>5,9</sup> and died on 14 June 1899 in Valkenburg, Mowbray, Cape Town, South Africa.<sup>15</sup> aged 73.

~ George was a Builder by Trade and a stone mason. In 1854 he was living in Somerset East. George was admitted to Valkenberg Asylum on 13 February 1899 in Wynberg for having an unsound mind. George and Ann Allwright had eleven children, four daughters and seven sons. Only five sons and three daughters are mentioned in his Death Notice.<sup>15,16,17</sup>

George married Annie McLean FRAZER on 7 June 1854 in Cape Province, South Africa.<sup>18,19</sup> They had 11 children: Mary Ann Brookes, George Arthur, Charles Frazer, Richard Chalmers/James, Miriam Agnes, William Hector, Henry Albert, Arthur Thomas, Eliza

Alice, Elizabeth Anne and John Edward.

~ No information could otherwise be found on her (DWA)

a1b3-Charles ALLWRIGHT<sup>5</sup> was born on 2 October 1826 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.<sup>5</sup> and died on 14 February 1827 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa..<sup>5,20</sup> He never married and had no children.

~ Charles Allwright was the Third son of Richard Allwright and Mary Allwright. He lived for only four months and 12 days and was not baptised. (DWA)<sup>20</sup> a1b4-Richard ALLWRIGHT<sup>5,9</sup> was born on 23 November 1827 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 13 July 1828 in St George's Cathedral, Cape Town, Cape Colony,<sup>5,9</sup> and died after 1886.

~ Richard was in the Building Trade.

Richard married Mary Ann TURNER, daughter of Joseph TURNER and Mary HAYTER,. Mary was born on 19 July 1836 in Wiltshire, England and died on 23 July 1875 in Sheperd's Rest, Somerset East, South Africa<sup>21</sup> aged 39. They had ten children: Ann Marie, Richard, Martha, Mary, Alexander, Mary Ann, Annie Maria, Sarah, Emma Sophia and Elizabeth Esther.

Richard next married Susannah Sophia STEERS on 11 February 1886 in Port Elizabeth, Eastern Cape Province, South Africa. They had no children.

a1b5-Martha ALLWRIGHT<sup>5,9</sup> was born on 7 October 1830 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 15 February 1831 at a private christening, Cape Town, Cape Colony,<sup>5,9</sup> died on 11 August 1911 in her son, William Denham Eva's house, Allanwater, Whittlesea, Eastern Cape<sup>22</sup> aged 80, and was buried on 13 August 1911 in Whittlesea, Eastern Cape, South Africa.<sup>23</sup>

~ Martha was the only daughter of Richard Allwright and Mary May Brooks. The entry in the records of St George's Cathedral, Cape Town reads: 1831 Feb 15th - Martha, daughter of Richard and Mary, his wife, born 7 October 1829, privately baptised. The date 7th October 1829 could be a mistake as three birthday books belonging to members of the family record her birthdate as 7 September 1830. D/N MOOC 6/9/674 2362 seems to confirm that her birth year is 1930. (DWA)<sup>22</sup>

Martha Allwright

Martha married William Denham EVA, son of James Jay EVA (1820 Settler) and Elizabeth DENHAM (1820 Settler), on 4 February 1845 in dwelling house of Mr Henry Windell, Fort Beaufort, South Africa.<sup>24</sup> William was born on 6 May 1820 in Bathurst, Eastern Cape Province, South Africa., died on 28 April 1902 in the home of his son-in-law J.W. Forrester, Whittlesea<sup>25</sup> aged 81, and was buried on 30 April 1902 in Whittlesea Cemetery Queenstown District, Eastern Cape, South Africa. They had 11 children: Mary Elizabeth, William Denham, James Jay, Miriam Ann, Elizabeth, Martha Lavinia, Thomas John, Angelina Brooks, Mortimer Richard, Clifford George and Charles Augustus.

~ Between 1845 - 1856, Baker. 19 May 1875 - Farmer of Queenstown

William Denham Eva

The Death Notice of William Denham Eva in the local paper reads:

"DIED - At Whittlesea, on the 28th April 1902, after many years of patient suffering, William Denham Eva, aged 81 years. Leaving a Family of 76 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
"Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to Thy cross I cling"

The inscription on the tombstone in the Whittlesea cemetery reads:

Richard Walker Allwright

In loving memory of William Denham Eva
who died April 28 1902
aged 81 years
also

MATHA
his beloved wife
died August 10 1911
aged 81 years.

Then when on earth we breath no more
The prayer oft moxed with tears before
We'll sing upon a happier shore
Thy will be done.

The name of his wife should of course, have been Martha al1b6-James ALLWRIGHT<sup>5,9</sup> was born in 1831 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 12 December 1831 at a private christening, Cape Town, Cape Colony,<sup>5,9</sup> and died in 1909 aged 78.

~ He was the Fifth son of Richard and Mary Allwright. His date of birth is only stated as six years in his Baptism. Family legend has it that after his Mother's death in about 1842 a childless couple, Mr and Mrs van Niekerk begged James' father, Richard to give James to them to be reared by them as their son on condition that he would be made their Heir. After growing up James married Hannah Eva , a daughter of James Jay Eva, a Baker by trade, who had come to South Africa from Cornwall in Osler's Party of 1820 Setlaarsin the ship Weymouth. James and Hannah had a son James Jay Eva Allwright born in 1855. The van Niekerks wanted this son to be named "van Niekerk. To this Hannah would not agree. As a result the Allwrights and van Niekerks parted company. The van Niekerks however, gave James and Hannah a wagon and span of oxen in recognition of their services.

James Allwright

According to voters records of 1878 they lived on Graften in Whittlesea. James and Hannah Allwright and their son are recorded in Saul Solomon's Country- Wide Directory of 1883-1884 as living in Cathcart. The Cape Post Office of 1886 lists them as farming on the fatm, Crofton, in the Cathcart District.(Ref Port Elizabeth Public Library)

James and Hannah accompanied James Jay Eva Allwright and his family to Thaba Nchu in 1902 and is mentioned as farming on the farm Salisbury with them in 1908 (Orange River Colony Directory of 1908) He predeceased his wife in 1909.

Thaba Nchu is a town in Free State, South Africa, located 60 km east of Bloemfontein. Its population is largely made up of Tswana and Sotho people. The town was settled in the 1830s and officially established in 1873. The town grew larger following the 1913 Natives' Land Act that stated Thaba Nchu as a homeland for Tswana people.

Moroka II, chief of the Boo-Seleka section of the Barolong tribe, migrated here in 1833. A decade earlier his clan was driven from their land of origin, over the Vaal, by Mzilikazi, and sojourned at Motlhanapitse, in what is now the western Free State . Upon reaching an agreement with king Moshoeshe I, they settled at Thaba Nchu, where their numbers were augmented by other Barolong scattered by Mzilikazi.

These Batswana people accepted the Voortrekkers as allies, as a consequence of the ongoing Difaqane (tribal wars). The first Voortrekkers to stay here on their northward journeys were Louis Tregardt and Hans van Rensburg. Thaba Nchu subsequently became a safe meeting place for leaders such as Hendrik Potgieter, Piet Uys and Gerrit Maritz.

After Potgieter's trek was attacked and plundered at Vegkop, Moroka II swiftly assisted him with draught oxen and a liberal provision of supplies. The Boer party was also assisted in returning to a refugee camp at Thaba Nchu, named "Moroka's Hoek". The Boer leader held a war council with the Barolong chiefs, Moroka and Tauana, where a Boer-Barolong-Griqua allegiance was formed, which shortly routed Mzilikazi, who then founded the kingdom of Matabeleland. Thaba Nchu was considered a friendly native state of the boer-governed Orange Free State, established in 1854. It however became an insular territory during the Basotho Wars, during which the Basotho were expelled from its vicinity. During the apartheid era it fell into the area set aside for the bantustan of Bophuthatswana, nominally ruled by the then President Lucas Mangope. It was then a trading centre. It was, and remains, one of the biggest tourist attractions in the Free State, home to various Sun International and other casinos.

Geographical features include the promontories of the Lesotho mountains, suitable for large lands with ample game, wherein a game reserve, the Maria Moroka Game Reserve, has been maintained. A variety of wildlife and bird species are found here, besides a hiking trail, a traditional Tswana site, and amenities for various activities and adventures in the reserve. The reserve has been named after the political town hero Dr. Maria Moroka. Much of the surrounding land is arable, which has been employed for large scale farming of both commercial and domestic nature. The town is also known for the Aran hand-knitted woolen garments made by local craftspeople.

James married Hannah EVA, daughter of James Jay EVA (1820 Settler) and Elizabeth DENHAM (1820 Settler), on 8 March 1855. Hannah was born on 5 September 1831 and died in her son's farm, Salisbury, in the OFS, aged in her 80's. They had one son: James Jay Eva.

When she died is not known, but they are both buried on Salisbury.

Hannah Allwright

a1b7-William ALLWRIGHT<sup>5</sup> was born on 15 January 1835 in Cape Town, Cape Of Good Hope,<sup>5,9</sup> was baptised on 10 December 1835 at a private christening, Cape Town, Cape Colony,<sup>5,9</sup> and died on 13 December 1835 in Cape Town, Cape Of Good Hope aged 11 months.<sup>27</sup>

~ The six son of Richard and Mary Allwright. William is not mentioned in his father's Death Notice in 1847 and his Mother's Death Notice has not been found.

At first we did not know what happened to him. He must have been seven when his mother died. We first assumed he could have died before this (which was the case) or he may have been adopted by someone who changed his name. I found a document of a "William Jarvis alias William Allwright" stating the following: In 1898 his occupation is stated that of a Butcher residing at Outshoorn. On the 7 May 1898 William (aged 63) firstly produced a forged letter to the Super Intendant of the Sailor Home, a certain Henry Goode, in Cape Town stating the following: "Please give the bearer Wm Wright food for 3 days and charge the same to me". Signed Rev. William Flint of Rose Bank, Wynberg. Secondly on 9 May 1898 he produced another letter to "Messrs Scott Bros", an Importing Company in Cape Town, owned by Alfred Hilliard, to a certain Alfred Gurney, an assistant, stating that the bearer William Wright has just started work? (at age 63) and must be supplied with an overcoat and be charged to Rev. William Flint. Alfred Gurney did however supply the overcoat belonging to Mr. Alfred Hilliard. Thirdly he also produced another letter to a certain George Black, an importer for an overcoat, a pair of boots, cap and braces also signed by Rev William Flint. Mr Black also supplied William with the goods. On 15 July 1898 he was given a notice that states that the evidence of his conviction of theft on 24 June 1891 (aged 56) has been withdrawn. So it appears this was his second run-in with the law. The Honorable Mr. Justice Maasdorp found William guilty of theft and was sentenced to nine months hard labour in prison on 15 July 1898. We now know that this is not our William, but who is this gentlemen William Jarvis going by the alias of "William Allwright". (DWA) a1b8-Charles ALLWRIGHT<sup>5</sup> was born in 1838 in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.<sup>28</sup> and died on 17 June 1853 in probably Somerset East<sup>28</sup> aged 15. He never married and had no children.

~ The seventh and youngest son of the original Immigrants, Richard Allwright and Mary May Brooks. The Baptismal Certificate for the second Charles could not be found but it is difficult to believe that he was the only child of Richard not baptized.
